

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday October 19, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Census wait ends today

Catfish earnings up $11M from '99

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

MDOT a mess, watchdog says

House seat hangs in balance today

Column: Preliminaries over, big show is set to begin

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Legislative preview Expect flag issue to move swiftly

Solution to problem with DUI law might be problem in itself

New governor has good year after an unprecedented start

Desoto Appeal Hernando, Mississippi

State may lose a seat in Congress with count of Census

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Natural gas shortage drives prices higher

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Massey hopes to build stronger foundation for home building industry

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Latest high-tech machines can connect you to just about everything

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Population figures expected this week

Editorial for Wednesday, Dec. 27, 2000

Sid Salter: Teacher pay issue looms in 2001

stateline.org

Economic Slowdown: Ohio A Case In Point